

WHAT YOU NEED TO COMPETE

In Canada, there are four levels of Equine Canada sanctioned dressage shows:

- Bronze
- Silver
- Gold
- Platinum (FI)

The following chart provides information on the requirement memberships for each level.

Bronze Shows: Competitors and owners require at least an EC Bronze sport license, and a provincial membership from their respective province. Dressage Canada affiliate fee is optional. Bronze shows are formerly Primary shows.

Silver Shows: Competitors and owners require at least an EC Silver sport license, and a provincial membership from their respective province. Dressage Canada affiliate fee is optional. Silver shows are formerly Provincial Permit shows.

Gold Shows: Competitors and owners require at least an EC Gold sport license, and a provincial membership from their respective province. In addition, a Senior or Junior Dressage Canada affiliate fee is required. Gold shows are formerly national shows.

Platinum Shows: Competitors and owners require at least an EC Platinum sport license, and a provincial membership from their respective province. In addition, a Senior or Junior Dressage Canada affiliate fee is required. Platinum shows are Gold shows run concurrently with FEI-sanctioned shows (CDIs). FEI Passports are required if the horse is partaking in the CDI classes.

Equine Canada Passports: Equine Canada Passports, with a current horse license sticker, are mandatory at Silver, Gold and Platinum levels. An Equine Canada passport is valid for as long as you own the horse.
